

cue: Horner...without the silver lining in my hair.

No. 4

I Long to Know

John:

Melva Wheelwright
Oct. 6, 2001

With wonder and longing (♩ = 92)

p
The cock crows at the break of dawn.

mp
In the hea-vens one last star lin-gers on. Is it my guid-ing star?

Father: John! Come along! Time to Work. John: Coming, Father.
Call - ing me from a - far?

Why was I born? How will I find a

17 mf
pur - pose on earth, a peace of mind? What 21

dif - ference will it make if I live or I die?

25
Do I mat - ter at all To that wide blue sky?

29
I search a - round me ev - ery - where. I walk through the fields and I feel the air. I stop & I lis-ten, but no-one's there! What am I? Who will 36 mf mp say? Will I find the an- swer some day? Why was I 40

32 f

born? How will I find a pur - pose on 44

earth, a peace of mind? What dif - ference will it make if I'm false or I'm true? Does an - y - one

48 mf

52 f

care what I choose to do? Who, then will 56

show me the path I should go? Why am I here? I 60

long to know!